

FOURTH STEP INVENTORY: PEOPLE WE HAVE HARMED One column at a time, top to bottom -- NOT straight across Big Book, page 70, paragraph 3 “We have listed the people we have hurt by our conduct, and are willing to straighten out the past if we can.”

Note 1: -- On those pages 58-63, you'll find examples of attitudes and defects that cause us to fail in our relationships and often fuel self-seeking conduct that harms others.

Note 2: “Time after time newcomers have tried to keep to themselves certain facts about their lives. Trying to avoid this humbling experience, they have turned to easier methods. Almost invariably they [Underearned again]. Having persevered with the rest of the program, they wondered why they fell. We think the reason is that they never completed their housecleaning. They took inventory all right, but hung on to some of the worst items in stock. They only thought they had lost their egoism and fear; they only thought they had humbled themselves. .... Coming to [their] senses, [they are] revolted at certain episodes [they] vaguely remember. These memories are a nightmare. [They] tremble to think someone might have observed [them]. As fast as [they] can, [they] push these memories far inside [themselves]. [They] hope they will never see the light of day. [They] are under constant fear and tension-that makes for more [underearning].” adapted from Page 73 -- Alcoholics Anonymous
